

June 2022 Piano Review Challenge

A special piano-related challenge for each day of the month!

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			1 Play your favorite repertoire piece.	2 Sight-read one new piece.	3 Listen to "Summerland" by William Grant Still.	4 Play a piece that makes you think of summer.
5 Play the melody to "Happy Birthday" by ear.	6 Improvise a piece that sounds like a rainbow.	7 Sight-read one new piece.	8 Play your favorite piece for a friend.	9 Open your book and clap the rhythm to the first piece you see.	10 Listen to "Canoeing" by Amy Beach.	11 Open your book and name every note in the first piece you see.
12 Play a piece in a major key.	13 Improvise a piece that uses only the black keys.	14 Draw every rhythm note and rest you can remember.	15 Sight-read one new piece.	16 Play five scales you remember hands together.	17 Listen to "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen" by Edvard Grieg.	18 Play "Row, Row, Row Your Boat" by ear.
19 Play a piece that uses staccatos.	20 Look up 5 facts about your favorite composer.	21 Sight-read one new piece.	22 Improvise a piece using the chords C, F, and G major.	23 Listen to "One Summer's Day" by Joe Hisaishi.	24 Play a piece that makes you happy.	25 Build a major and minor chord starting on each white key.
26 Write down 5 musical terms and their definitions.	27 Play a piece that is legato.	28 Play five scales you remember hands together.	29 Play your favorite piece for a friend.	30 Improvise a piece that uses a minor scale.		