

A Minuet for Mozart

Did you know that Mozart loved puzzles and games? In fact, Mozart once created a party game in which the players composed music by rolling a set of dice to create their own minuets!

In honor of Mozart's game, here is a similar challenge for you. You will need: dice, the minuet template staff page, a pencil, and your piano. Ready? Here's how it works:

1. Roll one of the dice and find the corresponding number on the staff below.
2. Copy these notes onto the treble clef line of the first measure of the minuet template page. Don't forget the slurs and staccatos!
3. Repeat steps 1 and 2 until the melody of your minuet is complete.
4. Play your melody on the piano and choose either a G or a D to play as your harmony note in the left hand. Write your choice on the bass clef staff as a dotted half note.
5. Create a fun title for your minuet! You might also enjoy trying a few of the optional activities at the bottom of your staff page.

1. Create a special ending (Coda) for your minuet using notes from the G major chord.
2. Try repeating your minuet, playing the right hand one octave higher.
3. Change the B's to B-flats to make your minuet minor.
4. Transpose your minuet to the key of C major.
